

Victory Performance Consulting

Helping good people change the world.

SERVANT LEADERSHIP

How to Enrich the Lives of Those You Lead

Those who wish to lead must first serve. This concept of servant leadership gained popularity in the 20th century and remains relevant today, but the philosophy is centuries old. In this program you will examine the origins of servant leadership, contrast it with other leadership styles, and discover what you can do to enrich the lives of others, foster workplace community, and create a more just and caring world. Want to enrich the lives of those you lead? This program is for you!

Format and Duration:

- Online (worldwide) or onsite (Americas, Europe, Asia); 4-8 hours

Learning Objectives:

- Discuss the history and relevance of servant leadership
- Compare and contrast various leadership theories and styles
- Describe the attributes and benefits of servant leadership
- Demonstrate leadership behaviors that enrich others and foster community

Leadership Competencies:

- Demonstrating participative leadership
- Developing collaborative relationships

Fields of Study:

- Social environment of business
- Business management and organization